Colas USA Appoints John Harrington as President & Chief Executive Officer

John Harrington assumes role as President & Chief Executive Officer of Colas USA effective March 1, 2022.

Morristown, NJ: Colas USA, a leader in road construction, materials, and innovation has appointed John Harrington as President & Chief Executive Officer. Harrington will succeed Thierry Le Roch' and assume responsibilities on March 1, 2022.

"Colas USA has successfully navigated the COVID-19 pandemic and is positioned for tremendous growth and success in 2022. I am excited to continue this journey with Colas USA and fully embrace our future challenges and successes." - John Harrington, incoming President & CEO of Colas USA

Harrington began his career at Colas USA in 2015 as Executive Vice President of Western Operations, overseeing the subsidiaries of Colaska Inc., Simon Contractors, and Sully-Miller Contracting Co. His strong experience – not only in the construction and engineering fields, but in leadership operations – has helped grow this area of the U.S. business for Colas.

Harrington has over 32 years of experience in the construction industry, beginning his career as a field engineer in Boston, MA prior to setting his sights on the warmer beaches of Southern California. After a stint in design, Harrington once again followed his passion back to the construction industry and quickly moved up the ranks of Flatiron Construction ultimately assuming responsibility for all operations in Southern California outside of San Diego. In 2004, he started a California division of Atkinson Construction becoming the Vice President and General Manager directly responsible for the development and growth of revenues over $300 million focusing primarily on complex infrastructure projects.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from the University of New Brunswick and a Class A General Engineer Contractor License from the state of California.

"John's extensive experience in construction and leadership operations has proved his impressive qualification to assume the position of President and CEO with pending success and achievement. The Colas USA community congratulates John for his dedication to the company and his career as together, we celebrate a new transition of leadership." - Thierry Le Roch', outgoing President & CEO of Colas USA
